

FedStar Credit Union – your true local financial institution.

Thank you for being a valued FedStar Credit Union member. You're the reason we exist and why we are here to serve you. Sure, we have lower rates on loans and competitive market rates on savings and certificates of deposit. But it is more than that. FedStar Credit Union began in this community over 59 years ago. It began with a handful of residents in our community that shared a common bond. We have grown in our community and throughout the great state of Texas by serving the needs of its residents and their families. All of us are in this together. We wanted to personally reach out to you regarding the current COVID-19 (Coronavirus) situation. As you can tell the information changes every day; our protocols must remain flexible to keep up with rapid changes.

Our local board and staff of FedStar, is closely monitoring the developing situation with respect to the COVID-19 (Coronavirus). We are following recommendations on prevention and best practices from our local, state and federal public health authorities. Our top priorities continue to be the health and well-being of our employees, as well as the uninterrupted service to our members. Your membership in our local credit union is why we exist.
